

DHAKA | Wednesday | 09 March 2011 | 25 Falgun 1417 BS | 03 Rabi-us saani 1432 Hijri

Women's Day observed in Gaibandha char areas

Our Correspondent

GAIBANDHA: The International Women's Day was observed in different char areas of Gaibandha district on Tuesday in a befitting manner as elsewhere in the country and across the globe.

This year's theme of the day was "Equal scopes in Education, Training, Science and Technology: Ensure Women's Employment and Development."

Friendship, a leading NGO working in the char areas of the country, chalked out elaborate programmes on the occasion under its Access to a Better Life Project funded by Manusher

Jonno Foundation.

A discussion was held by the Chars Development Committee (CDC) highlighting the significance of the day at Kuchkhali Char under Fazlupur union of Fulchhari upazila in the district with CDC president M Iman Ali in the chair.

The speakers in the meeting stressed the need for ensuring equal rights of all in the society. A large number of CDC members, public representatives and the local elite were present on the occasion.

Besides, a colourful rally led by Gaibandha deputy commissioner M Shahidul Islam was also brought out in the district town.

Project Coordinator of Friendship M Zakir Hossain and other officials and the employees of the organisation participated in the rally.

Later, a workshop on importance of the day was also held in the auditorium of the Public Library of the town.